

Some of Our Activities in Pictures

September 2010 to April 2011

2010

September

Dr. Frank Torti, Wake Forest University, kicked off the semester's SciTech Lecture Series with "Advancing Cancer Treatment through Technology Innovation".

October

Dr. Mark Wainberg flew in from McGill University to speak on "The Benefits of 25 Years of HIV Research on Laboratory Technology & Human Health". Gwyn Riddick- NCBC- "feted".

November

Steven Burke from the BioFuels Center of NC spoke to our SciTech audience on "BioFuels Across the Landscape: Vision, Challenge and Change".

December

President Obama, College President Gary Green and Governor Perdue visit Forsyth Tech and stop by to see the Biotechnology Department – The Nation's "Sputnik Moment"

2011

January

Dr. Sandra Porter, Bio-Link, flew in to discuss Bioinformatics. WFIRM's Dr. Anthony Atala was our guest speaker of the month's SciTech Lecture Series, re: Regenerative Medicine.

February

Dr. Frank Carver spoke at SciTech. His Lecture was on "Environmental Studies in Liberia". NCBW staff participated in the AAAS Community College Forum in Washington D.C.

March

International Year of Chemistry 2011 Celebration at Forsyth Tech with Doug Drabble of BioNetwork. Targacept CEO & President Dr. Don deBethizy speaks at the SciTech Lecture.

April

International students visit the Forsyth Tech Biotechnology Labs to learn more about our program. NCBW Staff give a presentation to the 2011 graduates of the biotech program.